

Remember when you got your chores done all at once so you could go play?

Trip chaining Same idea, only you'll save the air in addition to time.

Chances are, you're already doing some trip chaining—combining errands into one trip. It's a great way to get things done so you have more time for the fun stuff. Plus, it helps reduce traffic congestion and pollution. When you first start a car after it's been sitting for more than an hour, it pollutes up to five times more than when the engine's warm.

Trip chaining keeps your engine warm and ready to go. So keep it up because—

It all adds up to cleaner air
